"Show men the way to the path of fame," says a writer. If a fellow could do that he could wear diamonds and besides occupy the head of the procession up the path of fame.

An Illinois judge has ruled that a wife who drinks 31 Scotch highballs at a sitting is a case for divorce. It appears more likely that it would be a case for the coroner.

Real evils call for honest indignation and exposure. The writers who are doing it are not handling "the muck rake" but there are some writers who do appear muck rakish in their reckless writings.

The muck rake has been added to the big stick at the White House. Senator Tillman will be lonesome if he cannot conjure up a side partner for his pitchfork. The strenuous life has to be kept up.

A Northern firm advertised for a man with certain capabilities but stipulated that he must be a married man. A young man filled the bill except that he wasn't married, but when he explained his predicament to a young lady she came to his rescue. This is the business age.

Says the Washington Post: "Judge Grosscup, of Chicago, has put the corporations and trusts all out of business again. The judge has a habit of doing that in magazine articles, interviews, addresses before economic clubs, and, in fact, everywhere except from the bench." Actions speak louder than words, is an old adage that hasn't been overruled yet.

Long before the morning sun gilds the eastern horizon to-day The Morning Star will be shedding its light in the towns and hamlets on the line of the Karolina Sentral. Old Aunt S. A. L. has awakened from her Rip Van Winkle sleep and finds that, in Wilmington, she is up against a live city and a progressive people—a people who believe in the old maxim: "The early bird catches the worm." They don't mind getting up at 4 o'clock in the morning. What a real business man desires when he must take the road is to get to his destination and then get back home as quickly as possible. What the readers of The Morning Star desire is to receive their favorite paper before the paste has dried on its folds—before the smoking coffee, the hot rolls and the ham and eggs are placed on the breakfast-table. This will be done at scores of post-offices on the old K. S. and its connections. The Morning Star extends a pleasant greeting to all its readers in the territory so greatly benefited by the new schedule.

THE SUPERIOR COURT

First Day of Second Week Occupied Largely By Only Trifling Matters

REMBERT TRIAL THURSDAY

Several Divorces Granted and One Denied—Fishblate Against Casualty Company Is Entered Upon Docket—Other Proceedings.

As a courtesy to Mr. Marsden Bellamy, of counsel for the defence, the important damage suit of Willie Rembert against the Consolidated Company was continued in the Superior Court yesterday and, by consent of the bar, was set for a hearing first thing Thursday morning of this week. The case will be one of the most important tried during the second week of the term. Herbert McClammy, Esq. and Hon. John D. Bellamy & Son, appear for the plaintiff, while Messrs. Bellamy & Bellamy and Davis & Davis will represent the company. The contentions in the case were spoken of at length in these columns Sunday morning. A miniature trolley car and a plan of the junction at Front and Princess streets was sent up to the Court House yesterday to be used in explaining the case by the defence.

The cases reached yesterday were of trifling importance. Judge Allen returned from Goldsboro where he spent Easter Sunday on the 10:10 A. M. train and court convened at 10:30 o'clock.

The sheriff returned the jurors regularly summoned for the week with the exception of L. G. Dodd, Jr., J. P. Summers and F. S. DuPre who were not found. The following were returned as jurors for the day D. R. Foster, E. Y. Davis, L. Bluethenthal, H. L. Horne, H. F. Riaar, I. J. Bear, S. A. Barber, Daniel F. Barnes, Chester A. Chubb, W. C. Armstrong, Julius Sternberger, Owen Martindale, W. C. Crow, W. A. Penny, James Sprunt, J. E. Holton, J. S. King and as not found, Chas. S. Bell, Ingram Baggett, W. H. Biddle. Excused by the court, S. P. Cowan, E. T. Huggins and James Sprunt.

In the case of Julian A. Riggs against Ellen Riggs, a divorce was granted.

Case of Ullery vs. Guthrie, involving a land entry of island property in the Cape Fear, was continued until next term.

The case of J. Alves Walker against R. H. Pickett and Roger Moore, also involving land entry to island property in the Cape Fear, was stricken off the docket, amounting practically to a nonsuit.

Case of McNair & Pearsall against J. B. Sellars & Co., was continued. M. M. J. Corbett vs. M. L. McLean, et. al., was stricken off the docket.

Cases of C. D. Weeks, trustee, vs. H. J. Spooner, Jr., and Rheinstein Dry Goods Company vs. Bettie McDougall, et. al., set for Wednesday of this week, were continued by consent.

The same entry was made as to cases of Murchison National Bank vs. Dunn Oil Mills Co., and the South Dunn Mfg. Co., set for Thursday.

During the afternoon divorces were granted in cases of F. V. Byrd vs. C. M. Byrd and Virginia Whitfield vs. John Whitfield, both couples being colored. Divorce was denied in the case of Robert Martin against Annie Martin.

Judgment according to recent decision of the Supreme Court was entered in the case of S. H. Fishblate, et. al., vs. the Fidelity and Casualty Co., of New York, in which the plaintiff recovered something over $2,000 on an accident policy. Iredell Meares, Esq., of counsel for the insurance company, yesterday signified his purpose to appear before the Supreme Court and ask for a rehearing of the case.

Court took a recess at 5 P. M. yesterday until 10 A. M. to-day. It is probable that Judge Allen will hear argument of counsel upon a motion of attorneys in the case of Strauss against Building and Loan Association, which was set for trial last week and not reached.

The only cases set for trial to-day are two in which F. T. Mills appears as plaintiff against W. W. Alderman. Mr. Mills is represented by Herbert McClammy, Esq., and Mr. Alderman by Rountree & Carr.

—The Board of Audit and Finance of the city will meet in regular session at the City Hall to-night at 8 o'clock. Only routine business is expected to come up at this meeting.

MISS ANNIE D. KENAN DEAD

Passed Away Early Yesterday Afternoon at Family Homestead in Kenansville—Result of Accident.

Miss Annie D. Kenan, daughter of the late Col. Owen R. Kenan, of Duplin, and one of the most highly esteemed women in this section of the State, died yesterday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock at the family home in Kenansville, N. C.

Miss Kenan's death was the result of an accident in this city about a year ago when she was thrown out of a buggy by a runaway horse, which became frightened at an automobile. As the result of the accident a limb had to be amputated and for several months she was in the James Walker Memorial Hospital here, later going to her home at Kenansville, where the condition of her health varied until within the last week she became worse, her death ensuing yesterday. The news came as a shock to very many friends here and cast a gloom over the entire community in which she resided. She was 63 years of age and her life was one of charity and good deeds. She entertained hospitably at the fine old Kenan homestead in Kenansville and to rich and poor alike in that great community, she was the soul of generosity and kindness, contributing largely to the church and every good cause which made for the uplift of humankind.

There were with Miss Kenan when she died her brother, Col. Thos. S. Kenan and Mrs. Kenan, of Raleigh; Mr. James C. Kenan, another brother, and Mrs. Kenan, of Kenansville; her nephew and nieces, Mrs. Henry M. Flagler, who arrived on the morning train; Miss Sarah Kenan, Mrs. Jessie Kenan Wise, and Mr. Graham Kenan, of Wilmington; Miss Emily Kenan, Mr. Owen Kenan, of New York, and other relatives. Mrs. W. R. Kenan, of this city, was unable to be present on account of illness.

Miss Kenan received her early education under the tutelage of the late Dr. James F. Sprunt and graduated from Edgeworth College, in Greensboro. All her long and useful life, she had lived in Kenansville. She was a devoted member of the Presbyterian church and a member of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. The funeral will be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon from Grove Presbyterian church at Kenansville by the Rev. W. M. Shaw and the interment will be in the family burying ground about two miles from the village.

The first part of the entertainment was the presentation under the direction of Mrs. W. A. Snyder, wife of the pastor, of an oratorio-cantata by Finley Lyon, entitled "The Great Light." It was really a great musical treat and was given by a complement of fine singers and a chorus of 35 well trained voices. Mrs. Snyder won many plaudits as a directress par excellence by the large number in the audience every one of whom was delighted with the music. Mrs. E. ### RETAIL GROCERS TO ORGANIZE.

Meeting Called at Court House To-Night at 8 O'Clock.

A movement has taken shape for the organization of the retail grocerymen of the city, the object being to cultivate better trade relations and for mutual protection. Carrying out this idea, a meeting of all retail grocers in the city is called to be held in the Court House at 8 o'clock to-night. It is the purpose of the promoters to connect the local association with the State and National organization of retail grocers. It will differ from the Wilmington Merchants' Association in that its membership will be confined exclusively to retail grocers and will operate under different rules and regulations. Mr. Norman H. Johnson, at the head of the State organization, was invited to attend the meeting to-morrow night and make an address, but for some reason the invitation did not reach him. However, others will be present to fully present the plan and to direct the organization. All retail grocers interested in the movement are respectfully invited to attend.

Two Building Permits.

From the office of Building Inspector Bonitz, permits have been granted each to Mr. James H. Chadbourn and Dr. C. P. Bolles, Jr., for the erection of two-story, ten-room residences on Nun, between Front and Second streets. Messrs. Rogers & Thomas are the contractors named on each permit.

PRETTY EASTER SERVICES

In All Wilmington Churches There Were Special Sermons and in Many Elaborate Observances.

The Easter services at all Wilmington churches were pretty and very appropriate. Special music and sermons fitting the occasion was the order all over the city and the congregations were large.

In the tower of Saint James' at sunrise in the morning the children of the parish gathered and sang Easter carols, led by Mr. E. C. Craft, cornetist. This service was very pretty indeed and the sweet music was heard by many. The first service in Saint James' was at 7:45 A. M., followed by the 11-o'clock service, at which, the sermon was by Bishop Strange. At 5 o'clock the children's service was held with address by the rector, Rev. R. W. Hogue. The latter was a beautiful Easter observance and the attendance was large.

At night Bishop Strange visited the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, Sixth and Queen streets, preaching and confirming a class of seventeen.

In all of the churches the services were impressive to a degree seldom attained upon any great occasion like Easter.

The service at Saint James' will be conducted at 11 o'clock this morning. All are invited.

STRIKE OF LINEMEN.

Six Southern Bell Men Are Out at Wilmington.

The story of the strike of linemen in the employ of the Southern Bell Telephone Company in seven States, including North Carolina, is told in the telegraphic columns of to-day's Star. The walk out at Wilmington affects six or more men all of who went out at 9 o'clock yesterday morning in response to orders from headquarters. The six are Messrs. A. H. Weedon, E. C. Yarborough, J. M. Croom, L. R. Woodberry, O. M. Maye and W. S. Herring. This leaves the company here without a lineman, though Superintendent T. S. McManus says the places of those out will be filled in a few days. In the meantime should overhead trouble occur it will likely not be remedied.

WED IN SAINT JOHN'S

Miss Eleanor Chase Emerson Claimed As Bride By Mr. C. VanLeuven.

PRETTY FOR ITS SIMPLICITY

Popular Young People of Wilmington Society Plight Their Troth at Hymen's Altar—Wedding Trip North Last Night.

The marriage of Miss Eleanor Chase Emerson and Mr. Cornelius Van Leuven was solemnized at half after six o'clock yesterday evening in Saint John's Epsicopal church, the Rev. James Carmichael, D. D., rector of the parish, officiating. On account of a recent bereavement in the family of the bride, the ceremony was simple and unostentatious, but, withal, beautiful for its simplicity and the quiet precision with which every detail was carried out. The decorations consisted merely of white, the aisles and altar being covered according to this scheme with no floral decorations whatever. A charming arrangement of a myriad of wax tapers from very handsome candelabra gave to the marriage scene a beauty of environment seldom witnessed at a Wilmington wedding. The church was well filled with a fashionable assemblage of relatives and admiring friends. The wedding marches were played with beautiful effect by Mr. E. H. Munson and the beautiful service of the Episcopal church was impressively spoken by Dr. Carmichael.

Miss Elliott Emerson, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor and the only other attendant of the bride was Miss Mildred Davis, bridesmaid. The groom was attended as best man by his college classmate, Mr Herbert DeW. Rapalje. The ushers included Mr. Raymond Hunt, Mr. Neil D. Emerson, brother of the bride; Mr. Wilson Cary Nicholson and Mr. Edwin R. Carpender, of New Brunswick, N. J., Mr. Ernest H. Rapalje, of Cronly, and Mr. Champ McD. Davis, of Wilmington.

The bride wore for the marriage a beautiful creation of white satin, tulle veil and carried an exquisite bouquet of bride's roses and Lilies of the Valley. The maid of honor was becomingly attired in Nile green radium silk and carrier Eastern Lilies. The bridesmaid wore white crepe-de-chine over taffeta and carried Easter Lillies. The gentlemen wore the conventional full evening address.

Mr. Munson played as the party entered the church the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, while the party left the church in reverse of the order of entrance to the gladsome strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The ceremony was not followed by a reception on account of the recent death of the bride's uncle. The bride and groom left on a special train at 8:30 o'clock for a wedding trip which will include a visit to New York and to the family home of the groom at Kingston, New York.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. Thomas M. Emerson, president of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, and Mr. VanLeuven is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James VanLeuven, of Kingston. Both are among the most popular young members of Wilmington society and have a host of friends here and elsewhere, who will be interested and pleased at the announcement of their marriage.

Among the large number of out-of-town guests here for the ceremony were A.r. and Mrs. Baughman, parents of Mrs. Emerson, and Miss Minnie Baughman, of Richmond.

Improve Club Quarters.

The interior of the Elks' Club is to be improved and greatly beautified within the next week or ten days. Concrete flooring is to be laid in the buffet, the walls in the pool room, reading rooms and parlors are to be beautified and natural wood wainscoating put in, while many other improvements are contemplated. Messrs. Leitner & Wilkins, architects in the Southern Building, have kindly consented to give the benefit of their services in the matter and the general affairs of the improvement will be looked after by Exalted Ruler W. R. Kingsbury. The work will cost several hundred dollars. Mr. Joe Schad, the well known South Carolina contractor, and Mr. Jere Carew, of McClamroch Bros., will be the contractors for the work.

Mr. Bailey's Impressions.

Mr. George W. Bailey, of the prominent cotton firm of Bailey & Montgomery, New York is a guest at The Orton and is accompanied by his wife. Mr. Bailey is being cordially greeted by many old friends in Wilmington. He says since he was last in Wilmington, there have been a great many improvements and he expresses confidence in the future of the city. Mr. Bailey was for some time with the cotton firm of Sprunt & Hinson, of which Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son are successors.

THE CEMENT INDUSTRY.

Speaking of Portland Cement, the Boston Commercial Bulletin contains statistics which show the tremendous growth of the cement manufacturing industry in the United States. In 1894 the product of what is known as "Portland Cement aggregated 798,757 barrels, but ten years later the manufacture of cement in various portions of the United States has increased to the enormous output of 26,505,881 barrels and it is estimated that the 1906 output alone will not fall short of 30,000,000 barrels.

In many portions of North Carolina we have material for cement manufacturing and we hope our State will soon be included among the producing States. The rapid expasion in the supply is amply explained by the corresponding quick growth in the demand. The uses to which cement has been put have multiplied wonderfully within a decade and are still constantly becoming more numerous. Of the recent developments the most interesting have been in connection with its advantages as a building material, not only for abutments, foundations and ornamental purposes, with which uses the public have been familiar for some years, but as a material for complete construction both in the form of cement blocks and reinforced concrete.

The States in which the manufacture of Portland cement was at first cultivated with success were few, Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey being conspicuous among the number, but of late the industry has been finding many new homes in the western country and promises to settle in some other districts as yet untried. In Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, Kansas, Minnesota, Colorado and even as far West as California cement is being made in greater or less quantities every year, while among the Southern States West Virginia and Georgia appear as contributing something to the total of the home product. In the industrial history of New England up to this time the making of this material has occupied no place, but there is word now that Massachusetts may shortly have one important plant.

It seems that sufficient power and plenty of limestone of good quality and suitable clay are the necessaries to manufacturing cement, and it might be well enough to cast about in North Carolina for opportunities to get into the business. The uses for cement are illimitable, it seems, and with the Panama Canal to use immense quantities and the use of this material in the erection of houses and the building of streets, it appears that there is a great field for the industry.

CREDIT FOR THE RATE BILL.

President Roosevelt has not been able to control the Republican party concerning the railway rate question before Congress. It is true that the majority of Republicans in the House appeared anxious to let the President have what he wanted and the Democrats assisted them with practical unanimity, but as scon as the Hepburn bill got over into the Senate, Mr. Roosevelt lost the reins over his party. The result has been that the President has abandoned several positions that he has taken at different times on the rate making question, and it takes close reading to keep up with his latest position about the bill soon to be voted upon in the Senate. It will be observed that the Senate Republicans and the House Republicans are diametrically opposed as to the measure, while the Democrats in the Senate and the House Democrats are practically united in their policy toward the proposed legislation. The Democrats claimed that railroad regulation was their platform thunder, and it really seems that watever amendments of a valuable character it will get will be of Democratic origin. Under the rather complex circumstances attending railway rate legislation, which side is to make most of it politically? The New York Journal of Commerce says:

"The striking characteristic of the railroad rate situation in Washington is now found in the relation between President Roosevelt and his former Democratic opponents. More and more plainly is it perceived that the passage of the rate bill in its present form will be the result of a bargain between the President and the Democratic leaders whereby the forces of the Administration and of the Democratic party can be partly joined. This is for obvious reasons. The main body of the Democrats find it easier to bargain with Administration people than they do with the so-called conservative Republicans, and unless, by some unforeseen chance, the conservatives should be able to subtract a few Democratic votes from opponents or reach an understanding with the Executive, the legislation will be shaped along the line of least resistance, as the Democrats and White House Republicans may deem best.

"In this struggle, what motives are controlling? It is an important contest, perhaps the most important that has been before the Senate for a long time. Yet the issue has been allowed to degenerate into one of a purely political character. In fact, the primary question now at issue between the White House and the Democrats seems to be which of the two groups will succeed in securing most credit for the legislation. The method by which effort is being made to get this credit is that of standing out for radical and still more radical propositions. White House Republicans object to a suitable court review provision. Democrats are willing to grant this, but they insist on an injunction clause which would be absolutely sui generis. The Administration group seeks to gain for the bill a broad scope by leaving certain clauses vague, and hence open to possible judicial interpretations that would greatly extend its function. Democrats counter with propositions to specify in plain terms the scope of the measure, giving it in language the broad reach only vaguely allowed to it by its originator. It is a contest of radicalism and unwisdom, with the present unconstitutional Hepburn bill, slightly modified in minor particulars, as a probable compromise. How either side can expect to get the 'credit' for which both are now eagerly seeking it is difficult to understand. The only explanation possible is that the 'credit' anticipated is of a purely temporary and vote-getting character. No rational man can expect that the people of this country will ultimately look with fayor upon any leader or party who may succeed in forcing into the statute books an unworkman-like and unfinished bill, doubtful in its meaning and fitted rather to afford labor to our judges than aid to the shipper."

Just the same, when the bill is finally passed, both sides will claim credit for it, the Democrats doubtless repudiating portions which it will saddle upon the anti-administration Senators of the President's party. So far as politics in the question goes it would seem that the Democrats up to date have the whip hand.

It is presumed that the Senate will have the question threshed out this week, and the upper house may take a vote on it and the amendments before the week closes. Certainly the interest grows more tense as the crisis approaches.

VICTIM OF LIQUOR

Sad Experience of Man Who Loved Whiskey and Was Led to Ruin.

HE MADE SLAVE OF HIMSELF.

Greensboro Keeley Institute Redeemed Him and He Never Wanted Liquor Again—Has Taken Others There to Get Blessing.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

Five years ago I took the Keeley Treatment at your Institute. I have been benefitted so much I wish to say a few words of praise, as I never tire of telling the good it did me. My age now is forty-four years. I had been a constant drinker for twenty-years. I can positively say I loved it as well as any person that ever took a drink, and to-day I can safely say I have no desire for a drink of anything that contains alcohol. It is no trouble for me to resist and there is no temptation now for me even to take a drink with the best friends I have on earth. If I had not taken your treatment when I did, I feel sure I could not have lived three months longer. For months before I took your treatment I drank most every day from three to four quarts of whiskey. At the time I left home to take the Keeley Treatment I weighed 180 pounds, and now to-day I weigh 215 pounds. I have enjoyed the best of health in all my life since five years ago, after taking your treatment. I can recommend your treatment to do all it claims to do: Make a new man out of one that has made a slave of himself. I never was treated any better in my life than I was by the officers, physician and manager. I have not only helped others by advising them to go, but I have carried five patients there myself. If I had not been benefitted myself I would not have taken any one else there. I hope this may help some poor man on to new life, health and happiness.

CURRENT COMMENT.

At stated intervals Grover Cleveland has to convince the knocker that while he is apt to go wrong on great public questions, he still knows how to catch fish.—Washington Post.

—If all the stories are true of the amounts of money 'Lish Dowie spent on his lady friends he was certainly running Boni Castellane a close second.—Philadelphia Press.

Of course, the trusts are selling goods cheaper abroad than in this country, but they are too busy to bother with explaining how they do it, and, besides, so few Democratic Congressmen can understand figures, anyway.—Washington Post.

—With William Jennings Bryan gaining strength daily in Congress as a conservative leader of the Democracy, the only thing that Judge Parker can do is to stand aghast.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

—"Why talk foolishness," asked The Petersburg Index-Appeal, "about the necessity of Bryan and Hearst as Democratic nominees for the presidency when the South can offer such men as Bailey and others of his type and character?" Why, indeed. There is no reason for the Democratic party to go into the next contest foredoomed to defeat. The Northern Democracy is rent by faction and for this reason the probability is that a Southern man of the type of Senator Bailey could command more votes in the North than any Northern man. The argument against a Southern man for the presidency is not as potential as it was formerly. We are forty-one years away from the close of the civil war. Speaking specifically of Mr. Bailey, none of the prjudices born of that period should attach to him, for he was an infant when the war closed.—Charlotte Observer.

—While crossing the yard of a brewery at Manchester Mrs. Geoffrey Grime was killed by the explosion of a beer barrel, which was being cleaned with steam and from which the bung had not been extracted. The barrel was projected with great force, and stuck Mrs. Grime at a distance of thirty-five yards.—London Express.

—America still distinguishes between grand and petit larceny, as may be gathered from the warrant charging Mr. Perkins, ex-Vice President of the New York Life Insurance Company, with the former. In England the distinction, which has existed since Edward I's time, was abolished in 1827, and again—to make sure, presumably—in the larceny act of 1861. If the property stolen did not exceed 12 pence in value, it was larceny, and the punishment was whipping or imprisonment; if the property was valued at more than 12 pence the larceny was grand, and the offense capital. In America to-day the valuation boundary between the two kinds of larceny varies from State to State, the manner of the theft also being taken into account in some instances. In New York the limit is $25.—London Chronicle.

—"I believe Jimpson would share his last dollar with a friend." "Yes, but did you ever catch him when he had one?"—Wilwaukee Sentinel.

—"Charley looked very sick when he returned from the races," said young Mrs. Torkons. "What was the trouble?" "He said his system was out of order."—Washington Star.

—Don't be too much takin' up wif yoh own good looks, sonny," said Uncle Eben. "De man that makes hay while the sun shines musn't be skeart of freckles."—Washinton Star.

—"By the way, Jack, what is impressionism?" "It is the art of picturing something which no one has ever seen in such a way that they wouldn't recognize it if they did see it."—Brooklyn Life.

—"Maw," asked Johnny, who is interested in cryptography, "do you know any thing about ciphers?" "I ought to," replied Mrs. Robinson, "I married one." And then Mr. McRobinson started for the corner saloon.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

—Tscum—"Dr. Price doesn't seem to be helping your sore eye any." Sufferer—"No, and he's got me worried about it now. I told him to-day that it was very painful, and I was afraid it was going to give me a lot of trouble, and he said: 'Don't worry. It will come out all right.'"—Philadelphia Press.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root; and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mannett, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. ## DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, April 16.—The drygoods market today opened with a better business in the jobber houses and at first hands from mail orders. Although the tone of the market was stronger it did not tend toward higher values, the disposition of buyers now being apparently to provide for their needs for the next three months.

War! War! War!

Forty two years ago our land was being devastated by a fratricidal war, and what is now Carolina Place was being thrown up and scarred by intrenchments for the protection of an army engaged in bloody conflict against the invading foe. But now how changed the scene! The army of laborers now equally busy on the same spot, are filling up the intrenchments, grading streets, running water pipes and laying side walks, preparatory to making the lots in Carolina Place the sites of peaceful and happy homes. Good building lots are going at $200 to $275—only $10 cash and $5.00 to $7.50 per month. No interest. Have you bought yet? If not do not lose another day, but buy at once while the best lots are selling. apr 14-tf.

A Card to the Public.

The citizens of Wilmington are, one and all, invited to go out and take in the busy scenes now being enacted in Carolina Place.

The water mains are now being laid. The streets are being graded and the sidewalks are being rapidly put down—mile on mile of smooth granolithic walks—uniform and beautiful to walk upon all over the property. Many people are preparing to build and will soon add their quota to the busy scene. If you have not bought your lot in Carolina Place yet, do not lose another day, but go at once and attend to this important business. apr14-tf

STANDARD OIL BUYING.

Commercial Paper in New York Prints Interesting Wilmington Story.

If not with any degree of confidence, at least with some interest will be read the following special dispatch to the New York Journal of Commerce under a Wilmington date line:

"Wilmington, N. C., April 13.—Lumber men in this section express themselves as certain that it will only be a matter of time before the Standard Oil Company owns practically all the valuable timber land in this State. Several vast bodies of timber land have already been purchased by the Standard, and offers have been made to other lumber companies, and, if accepted, the Standard will take over the two large mills located in Wilmington, and which are the largest in eastern North Carolina.

"All oil going to foreign countries is shipped in five or ten-gallon cans, and these are placed in a light pine box. Last year the Standard used millions of these boxes, and their intention is to own their own timber and thus save the middle man's profit. There is a box factory in this city which supplies the Standard with a large number of boxes. Last year one contract was made for a million boxes."

Junior Order Carnival.

The committee from the Jr. O. U. A. M., which has the matter in charge, yesterday afternoon signed a contract with a representative of the Pierce Amusement Co., for furnishing the attractions for the carnival to be given in this city under the auspices of their order for the week of May 7th. The company is now at Fayetteville and will play engagements in Kinston and Newbern before coming here. In the meantime it is announced that the manager will go to Baltimore and secure a number of additional attractions.

The Ministerial Association.

It was reported at the meeting of the Ministerial Association at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday morning that as a result of the recent general revival all over the city, the church membership in Wilmington was increased by 182. Rev. Mr. Shackford, of Nashville, Tenn., was present and interested local pastors in his interdedominational work in behalf of the young people of the State. Rev. Mr. Shackford spoke with great effect of his work at the First Baptist church last night.

RESERVATION OF FT. FISHER

Congressman Patterson Introduces Important Bill in House of Representatives.

Congressman G. B. Patterson, of this District, has introduced in the House of Representatives a bill appropriating $40,000 for the purchase of Fort Fisher near the month of the Cape Fear river, the scene of the greatest conflict in naval warfare according to all Confederate historians. The bill proposes to make of the property a great National park and the measure provides among other things.

"That the Secretary of War is hereby authorized and empowered to acquire, by purchase or otherwise, the site of Fort Fisher, in the county of New Hanover and State of North Carolina, comprising a tract of land between three and four hundred acres in extent, adjacent to and surrounding the ruins of the said Fort Fisher.

"Sec. 2. That the said land and premises above mentioned are hereby constituted and set apart as a National park reservation under such rules and regulations as may be adopted and promulgated by the Secretary of War."

In view of the efforts of veterans on both sides of the struggle at Fisher to have a National reunion there each year, it is believed that influences will be brought to bear in Washington that will ensure the passage of Mr. Patterson's bill.

The purchase of this property by the government would mean much to Wilmington, Southport and the State at large. It marked the gateway of the South during the Civil War and the conflict between Confederate and Federal troops there is memorable in history.

The property is now understood to belong to a Virginia land and improvement company of which Mr. J. T. Bradley, of Petersburg, Va., is president. It was purchased ten or twelve years ago by the company with much other land on Federal Point. The fact that the land is owned by a Virginia corporation is expected to wield the influence of that State largely in favor of a passage of the bill.

DEBATES AND ATHLETICS.

Wake Forest With Mercer and Trinity with A. & M.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 16.—Wake Forest college won to-night in a spirited and very reditable debate with Mercer College, of Georgia, the question being: "Resolved, that the Southern States should encourage foreign immigrants admitted into this country to settle within their bordera." Wake Forest supported the negative. The speakers were. Wake Forest, T. B. Ashcraft, J. B. Witherspoon; Mercer University, O. C. Giner and C. A. Wells. The judges were Chief Justice Walter Clark, Associate Justice W. A. Hoke, of the Supreme Court, and Jos. G. Brown. The debate was heard by twelve hundred people.

Several stirring scenes characterized the Trinity College-A. & M. baseball game here to-day, not the least exciting being a difficulty which developed between the rooters over the respective mascots. The Trinity rooters had purchased a fine rooster here and decorated it in the college colors. It was creating quite a stir at the baseball park when the A. & M. rooters appeared on the scene with a huge bull dog in A. & M. colors for a mascot. They managed to get hold of the Trinity rooster, set the bull dog on it with the result the rooster was killed What came near being a serious row, resulted a number of blows were passed and several on both sides came out of the scrimmage with black eyes and other bruises.

The score was 6 to 1 in Trinity's favor, the runs by Trinity being in the first, two each in the fifth and seventh and one in the eighth. A. & M.'s run was in the first inning and was a sensational home run by Eskridge on the first ball. He put in two other singles out of four times up, one of these being prevented from being a home run by a feature stop by Justice. The box work by Clements, the catching by Wrenn and the hitting by Smith were features of the game by Trinity. Smith having gotten in a home run.

MAYOR'S MONDAY COURT.

Half Dozen Offenders Tried—Two to the Country.

Only a few cases of interest were before the Mayor yesterday. A white man giving his name as "S. Boy," arrested for being drunk and disorderly by Officer E. L. Smith at Ninth and Market streets, forfeited bond of $7.35 by not appearing. Fred Bennett, colored, arrested for being drunk and disorderly by Capt. T. H. Johnson, at Front Street Market, was exiled to the county roads for 30 days. Rebecca Green, a darktown belle, for firing a pistol in the city limits, was given 30 days on the farm. James Ferguson, a negro who offered a razor for sale at Fourth and Campbell streets Saturday night, was charged with carrying a concealed weapon. A white man to whom the razor was offered, rang for the police patrol. The Mayor took it that unfair advantage of the prisoner was taken, to say nothing of the fact that there was no concealment, and the case was dismissed.

ANNIVERSARY BALL.

Fortieth Annual Last Night by Hibernian Benevolent Society.

The fortieth annual anniversary ball of the Hibernian Benevolent Society was given last night in the hall on Third street and it was a thoroughly delightful affair in every respect. A goodly number of young people were in attendance and music and dancing calimed their attention until a late hour.

Refreshments consisting of sandwiches, coffee, ice cream, cake and other edibles were served by a committee of ladies composed of Mrs. James J. Allen, Mrs. William Banks, Mrs. Tom Quinlivan, Mrs. Mary Kelley, Mrs. John Meier and Mrs. John Barry. The committee of gentlemen in charge did their duty well in looking after the general arrangements and the affair was greatly enjoyed by everyone present.

MR. TILLMAN AFTER BANKS

Insist on Having Answer About Contributions to Republican Campaign Fund

SIMMONS INTRODUCES BILL

North Carolina Senator Wants to Safeguard Immigration—Houses Passes Free Alcohol Bill—Speaker Cannon's Ruling.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, April 16.—Mr. Tillman introduced in the Senate to-day a resolution directing the committee on Finance to inquire into alleged contributions to campaign committee and why facts concerning them had not been disclosed by the Comptroller of the Currency. Mr. Tillman asked for immediate consideration of the resolution, but upon objection, it went over. The resolution follows:

"Resolved, That the Committee on Finance be directed to inquire whether or not the National banks have made contributions in aid of poltical committees, and if so to what extent, and why the facts have not been divulged by the Comptroller of the Currency, and whether or not such contributions have been embezzlements, abtractions or willful misappropriations of the funds of the banks, which call for restitution and criminal prosecutions. Said committee is also directed to inquire whether or not the National banks of Chicago have recently engaged in transactions beyond their lawful power in connection with the recent failure of a bank in that city, and whether such failure involved illegalities and crimes; and also to inquire whether the National banks in Ohio have been in the habit of paying large sums of money in a secret and illicit manner to the county treasurers of Ohio as a compensation to said treasurers for making deposits of public money with such banks; and to report the facts to the Senate, and the opinion of the committee whether any legal proceedings should be instituted on account of the transactions disclosed; and whether the public interest requires any amendments of the existing National bank laws."

The Senate.

Washington, April 16.—Senator Simmons today introduced an amendment to the bill for the revision of the pending laws in relation to the admission of aliens. The amendment provides for the exclusion of adult males who cannot read and write in the language of their nationality and who not at the time of landing at least $25 and in addition thereto $10 for each female member of his family and every male member there of not 21 years of age.

A speech on the railroad bill by Mr. Heyburn, of Idaho, in advocacy of his court review amendments lead to more than two hours technical debate in the Senate today.

The Indian appropriation bill was taken up for committee amendments but was not completed and consideration of this measure will be resumed tomorrow, to which time the Senate adjourned.

The House.

Washington, April 16.—This was "suspension day" in the House, and a number of important measures were passed, notable among them being the bill permitting the withdrawal from bond, tax free, of domestic alcohol when rendered unfit for beverage or liquid medicinal uses by mixture with suitable denaturing materials; the bill amending the national trademark law and the bill forbidding the importation and carriage in interstate commerce of falsely stamped articles of gold, etc.

Bills passed included one to extend the time when the coastwise shipping laws shall go into effect in the Philippines, and another to increase the limit of loans by national banks, allowing national banks to loan ten per cent. of their capital and ten per cent. of their surplus to any person, firm, or corporation.

Mr. Gillespie, of Texas, a member of the Committee on Banking and Currency, said the bill was in the interest of the large borrower and against the small borrower, thereby lessening the cost of administration. It was his opinion that the bill was inimicable to the broad theory of the national banking act.

Mr. Pujo, of Louisiana, said that "should this legislation be enacted it would add to the legal lending volume about $44,000,000 as the surplus is now some $442,000,000."

The bill was passed 193 to 7.

Speaking on the bill to remove the tax from denatured alcohol, Mr. Clark, of Missouri, said that the proposition was the only one of which history furnishes an authentic record on which distillers and prohibitionists, manufacturers and farmers, capitalists and the Federation of Labor, producers and consumers, all agree. "If the roseate predictions of its most enthusiastic advocates are fulfilled," he said, "we will witness a veritable Aladdin's lamp working its miriad wonders before our eyes in this prosaic age. If even half of them are realized we will see a revolution in lighting, heating and motor power." The bill was passed 224 to 7.

Mr. Adamson, of Georgia, opposed the bill forbidding the carriage of falsely stamped articles of gold or silver, contending that it placed on the general government the burden of performing police duty. Mr. Adamson said the bill brought the Postoffice Department in direct competition with the express companies, which never was contemplated by the constitution. This bill was also passed.

Mr. Davey, of Louisiana, called up the national quarantine bill, seeking to substitute the Senate bill for the measure which recently passed the House, in order to get the measure into conference.

Mr. Bartlett, of Georgia, began a mild filibuster against the bill by demanding that it be read which was done.

Seeing that debate was inevitable, Mr. Payne, of New York, in order to continue the suspension day over to another day, moved that the House take a recess until 11:30 A. M., tomorrow. On a vote, the absence of a quorum was disclosed.

For an hour or more the wheels of legislation were at a standstill. Finally after sending for members at their hotels and apartment houses, a quorum was secured.

A majority having voted in the affirmative the House took a recess until 11:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

An Able Address.

Delectricable and superfeminate hearers—Lend me your ears for a short space of no time at all most hardly, and I will expatiate my ideas right down upon your caputs as thick as brickbats upon a meetin' house; in prose and in rhymes, about matters and things and curious times. I am the individual that superobstructs the extremity of the North Pole with my old hat, to prevent the winds from escaping and congealing your liberalities. They used to have these amphibious, sudiferous, great big four-horse standing collars, high as the hind-end of a Virginia tobacco wagon, and then they had an institution called Byron, wide enough to reach from Phil's kitchen to Hannah's cotton patch.

Cigars they'd smoke and glasses dash,
Empty pockets had no cash;
Fine kid gloves that saved their hands from dirt.
And stately studs stabled on their shirt.

The above is a silly jumble of big words (?) and nonsense, but the following is the rumble of good, hard, common sense: There is no surer or safer investment for a hundred per cent. profit in a short time than that offered in Carolina Place by the American Suburban Corporation, 315 Southern Building. Nice high building lots, only $200 to $275 each; $10 cash, and $7.50 to $5.00 per month. No interest. Handsome improvements — water, granolithic or stone sidewalks, shade trees, etc. Healthy restriction for the protection of buyers, and looking to the making of Carolina Place a first-class white resident section. Only a few beautiful high lots left—intrinsically the cheapest and safest of the addition, because all the other hundreds of lots having been sold the proposition is no longer an experiment, but is now assured beyond all preadventure. Don't fail to get on the band wagon at once. Call at the office, or vogorously operate—Hello No. 1341 and make known your troubles.

BELL LINEMEN GO ON STRIKE

North Carolina and Several Other Southern States Affected By Order

ABOUT 1,400 MEN CALLED OUT

Telephone People Resist All Demands of Linemen and Say Only Four Hundred Men Will Quit Work—Union's Side.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Atlanta, Ga., April 16.—The strike of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company linemen, which has been rumored for some time, was inaugurated today. It is understood that only the linemen are involved in the strike. The statements as to the number of men who actually quit work today, according to Col. W. A. Gentry, vice president of the company, declaring that only about 400 of 1,000 men employed in the territory affected are out, while Dale Smith, of Washington, president of the district councils number 1 and 2, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, asserted that eighty per cent. of the 1,200 to 1,400 men in the territory are out. Mr. Smith based his assertion on incomplete telegraphic reports and says the exact number out will be known tomorrow morning.

The contest which will be fought out in Atlanta, covers the States of West Virginia, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and Alabama. The linemen state their claims to be a nine hour day; time and half for overtime, double time for Sundays and holidays, and increase in wages for linemen, apprentices and instrument men. Mr Smith said today that negotiations for adjusting these matters have been under way for more than a year

The position of the striking linemen was outlined today by Mr Smith and James N Noonan, vice president of the Southeastern Division as follows:

"The matter of increased wages and other grievances was taken up at a meeting in Atlanta one year ago this month and a committee was named to confer iwth the Bell officials. Negotiations were opened immediately with Col. Gentry, but he refused to treat or make any concessions. A referendum vote was then ordered for 'strike,' or 'no strike,' which resulted in a practically unanimous vote for a strike. We earnestly desired to avoid a strike and a committee from the district council again conferred with Mr. Gentry, but with no tangible results. Finally last December, Mr. Gentry agreed to increases in wages for linemen in certain towns. These promises were fulfilled. At the same time Mr. Gentry agreed to take up the question of $2.75 for the linemen and over pay for certain duties. We met him last month, and he then stated that he had not and would not take up the matter. This brought us down to last Saturday, when Mr. Gentry finally said he would not agree to anything and we issued orders for the men in the territory to go out Monday morning."

"The men who struck," said Col. Gentry, vice president of the company, "were receiving more money than was demanded by the union. The highest daily wages demanded by union officials was $2.75 per day of nine hours. We are paying our first class linemen 2.70 per day of nine hours, giving them two hours off on Saturday for which they receive full pay, making their total wages average $2.80 per day. Numbers of our linemen have stated that they have no grievance against the company. The wages, the hours and the treatment they received were satisfactory. The union wished us to sign an agreement to pay the present scale for a definite period, to employ only union men and to let the complaints of our men come to us through a grievance committee composed of union men officially. We decline to sign this agreement, preferring to deal directly with the men, believing that our interests and the interests of the men, as experience has demonstrated, would be best subserved by the method now in vogue."

Easter Trade.

We want to thank the generous public for their liberal patronage through the Easter week.

Our business is even a surprise to us. Last year we did very, very well and we thought then it would be a hard matter to break that record, but looking over and figuring up the sales the year past, 1905, and coming it with the Easter week of 1906, we find we are 33 1-3 per cent. better which is a most remarkable increase. We have tried hard to please the many customers we have had and I want to say that if we have caused any one any uneasiness or delay in getting their goods, it is not our fault. It was simply our inability to secure sufficient good help to do the work in the given space of time.

You remember, we trim hats free, work ten milliners with work piled on each side of each one of them, all free to our customers.

To buy your hats from Gaylord is a saving to you.

We sell you the material cheaper than others and trim your hats for nothing. If our work room is not large enough, we can tear down the walsl and build it larger. We want r busines for Monday morning. We wil have a quantity of new hats, new ribbons, new owers and a full line of colors in malines and chiffons.

Those who have not gotten their hats for Easter can be suited to-day, even better than last week. You will have more time to make your selection and we feel positively sure we can please you.

A STROKE OF GENIUS

[Original.]

My aunt, with whom I went to live upon the death of my father, had been very unfortunate in her marriage. This had made her bitter against matrimony, and she became possessed with the idea of preventing my ever taking a husband. Before I had lived with her six months a written agreement had been made between us that I was to inherit all her property on condition of always remaining unmarried. Otherwise it would go to her brothers and sisters.

Till I met Oscar Merriam I thought little of my agreement. Oscar was just the fellow to win a girl's heart. A cheerful, reckless disposition, a delicious smile, a hopeful, impractical nature—these were his traits, and they were just the traits to make me love him beyond measure.

My love affair nearly drove me wild. My infatuation for Oscar did not render me blind to the fact that he was visionary and impractical. On the one hand was every comfort without him; on the other every privation with him. His influence over me was sufficient to induce me to consent to a secret marriage. I was not dishonest enough to accept my aunt's fortune, failing to fulfill my part of the contract; indeed, by marriage I gave up my rights. I hoped for some occurrence to change the conditions, but the conditions grew more and more stringent. My aunt, who had received a nervous shock at the time of her husband's death, fell into a monomania on the subject of opposition to marriage and never ceased to remind me of my agreement. At last she became so demented that her physicians sent her to a sanitarium.

After a few months' medical treatment her mental condition was much improved, but she died suddenly of pneumonia.

I was in great perplexity, for my agreement with her still stood, and I had broken it. When the will was opened, what was my surprise to learn that my aunt had left me her fortune on condition that I marry within eighteen months after her death! When she had recovered a better mental condition she was horrified to think of my being unprotected and that she had fostered what she now dreaded. I consulted lawyers, who agreed that the terms of the will required me to be married within a specified time after my aunt's death. A marriage before or after this period would not fulfill the conditions. I wrote Oscar, who was at the time in Washington endeavoring to secure a patent.

I heard nothing from him for several days. Then he wrote me, frankly confessing that he only married me as an heiress and had no use for me poor.

For several days after this shock I was frantic. Then I was buoyed up by anger. Upon consultation with my lawyer he advised me to begin divorce proceedings at once, and if it could be secured within the period designated in the will I might marry again before the time stipulated in the will should expire and secure the property. I was still so infatuated with my husband, loved him so dearly, that I hesitated. Then my anger prevailed. I would be rich, and he should see me living in luxury while he was buried in poverty and his patent rights. Proceedings were commenced at once, and I was not surprised when Oscar failed to make any answer to my charge, which was desertion. My attorney worked hard to expedite matters, but despite his energy the law's delay did not admit of my securing my decree with permission to marry till a few days before the expiration of the limit of time.

The great burden that rested upon me was the matter of a husband. In the first place, I was still in my heart foolish enough to love the man who had so basely deserted me. The adage, "Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned," did not apply to me. Marriage with another was so repulsive to me that I seriously considered, after all, giving up the fortune and living without the matrimonial yoke. But no one—especially a woman—likes to give up a fortune and live alone at the same time. When my lawyer reminded me that before noon on the following day I must be wedded or my rights would be forfeited I had no preference whatever for any man. In despair I told my attorney to suggest some one. He promised to produce a friend who, he said, had known me and been my lover for a long while. I did not care for any except one man's love, but I considered this an advantage and consented to the introduction.

Though the time was short my attorney did not hurry, and it was 9 o'clock on the evening before the expiration of the time limit when the doorbell rang and I knew I was to inspect the candidate. So disagreeable was the matter to me that when the two men came into the drawing room I could not refrain from turning my back. There was a quick step behind me, and a pair of arms clasped me. I turned, indignant, and there was Oscar looking down on me with that same old entrancing smile.

Then it came out that the whole affair was a ruse of his to fulfill the conditions of the will.

We were married the same evening, and the next day I claimed and eventually received my fortune. My husband is the same delightful, extravagant, generous, impractical man as of yore. He has never made a dollar, but he saved a fortune, so it doesn't matter. Indeed, I consider his method of fulfilling the conditions of my aunt's will a stroke of genius, for had those interested been able to prove collusion they would have defeated the plan and taken the property.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—High Point special, April 14th: From an official statement from all the factories concerned in the lock-out of union labor there have been half a hundred desertions from the union ranks this week, or at least this number have been hired who said they belonged to the union, chief among whom is Mr. Ed. I. Mungo, secretary of the woodworkers' Union.

—Charlotte Observer: The committee from Charlotte and the members of the North Carolina delegation in Congress who have interested themselves in securing an orator for the 20th of May are to be congratulated, as is this city, upon the acceptance by Hon. Champ Clark, of Missouri, of the invitation extended him. The 20th of May visitors to Charlotte have something to look forward to. Mr. Clark will prove a real attraction. He is the wit of the House, distinguished likewise as a platform speaker, and is a national figure.

—The condition of the lock-out at High Point, as reported from the union side is as follows up to Saturday: Another eventful day in the High Point lock-out has passed. The men remain, as formerly, steadfast. Money has been appropriated by all the unions in the State to aid the men who are locked out. No desertions to amount to anything have taken place. President Gompers has wired from Washington to Representative Ott telling the men to stand firm, and if they did not the employers would force them to worse conditions than at present exist.

—Salisbury special April 15: The first mischief wrought upon the property of the street car people was on this beautiful Easter Sunday, when some unknown person, in the broadest daylight, turned the current upon a car standing on the sidetrack and ran it into the barn. The crash was terrific and the car was badly torn up. It struck another car in the barn, one of the heavy summer coaches, and this drove the two trailers through the brick wall, very badly damaging the building, and almost tearing it from its foundation. The car lacked but an inch of going off the track.

This is the name of the new company which intends to engage in the manufacture of roller top desks and other furniture. The total authorized capital stock is $125,000, but the company will commence business with $10,000 capital paid in. Mr. Thomas Williams, of New Jersey is the organizer of the new company, and several Lexington citizens will be interested. Mr. Williams is here and the contract for the erection of the plant is expected to be let at an early date.

—Spartanburg, S. C., special, April 14th: Dr. Nichols, a dentist of Enoree, has been missing since Wednesday and fears are entertained that he has met with foul play and that his body has been thrown in Enoree river. Dr. Nichols and another man, a stranger in the community, went on a fishing expedition on the night when he disappeared and neither has since been seen. The family says that Dr. Nichols had a considerable sum of money on his person when he left home. The river will be dragged tomorrow if nothing is heard from him. Dr. Nichols was highly respected, and had a large practice. His wife and two grown daughters compose the family. They came to Enoree six months ago from Asheville, N. C.

—The Socialists of Asheville and western North Carolina intend entering the arena of politics this year. At a gathering of the faithful few in Asheville on Saturday afternoon they nominated a full ticket from congressman to constable. There was no contest for places on the ticket. There was a lack of strife and the honors went to whom ever was first mentioned. When the Scoialists assembled a count of noses revealed the fact that there were enough present to fill all the places on the ticket and the business of making nominations was undertaken. As the nominations proceeded those who were declared nominees made short addresses, commending the principles of Socialism and pledging their hearty support to the cause they had espoused. The convention readily voted to give assistance to the unions at High Point on their fight for recognition and against their former employers.

—Washington, N. C., special April 14th: David Rice, arrested in Norfolk on the charge of abducting Mrs. E. B. Olive, has been brough back here in charge of Sheriff George E. Ricks and incarcerated in jail. A hearing in the case has been postponed, on account of the prosecution not being prepared to present its case. The Norfolk Virginian-Pilot says that Rice alleges that Mrs. Olive followed him to Norfolk from this city, and adds that the police assert that Mrs. Olive herself admits that she followed Rice, claiming that surroundings at home were not congenial. It is further learned from Norfolk that on the arrest of Rice there, Mrs. Olive, without money or friends, appealed to Mayor Riddick, who succeeded in securing her admission to the Girls' Home on Bank street. Soon afterward the Mayor received a telegram for Mrs. Olive from E. S. Simmons, attorney for David Rice at Washington, requesting Mrs. Olive to call at the general delivery for a letter. The official at once endeavored to communicate with Mrs. Olive, but she had left her home, and all efforts to locate her have thus far met with no success.

—Winston-Salem special, April 14: Intelligence in yesterday's papers that John Crouch, private secretary to Congressman Blackburn, had been subpoenaed by the government as a witness against Blackburn in the trial at Greensboro next week provoked considerable discussion here A leading lawyer here says that while he knows nothing about the testimony sought to be used, yet as a general proposition, information gained by a clerk in a confidential capacity, is considered in law "a privileged communication." Another lawyer however cited the recent case in New York where the private stenographer of Town Topics was compelled to invulge correspondence and confidential lists of subscribers. The discussion of the Crouch matter brought out another sensational incident connected with the coming trial. It developed that the officers of the Piedmont Savings Bank here were considerably flurried Wednesday afternoon over service of Deputy Marshal Carroll of a subpoena on Cashier Crutchfield, of the Piedmont Savings Bank, to appear as witness in the Federal court at Greensboro next week and produce certain checks in possession of the bank as evidence for the government in the cases against Congressman Blackburn.

An Able Address.

Delectricable and superfeminate hearers—Lend me your ears for a short space of no time at all most hardly, and I will expatiate my ideas right down upon your caputs as thick as brickbats upon a meetin' house; in prose and in rhymes, about matters and things and curious times. I am the individual that superobstructs the extremity of the North Pole with my old hat, to prevent the winds from escaping and congealing your liberalities. They used to have these amphibious, sudiferous, great big four-horse standing collars, high as the hind-end of a Virginia tobacco wagon, and then they had an institution called Byron, wide enough to reach from Phil's kitchen to Hannah's cotton patch.

Cigars they'd smoke and glasses dash,
Empty pockets had no cash;
Fine kid gloves that saved their hands from dirt.
And stately studs stabled on their shirt.

The above is a silly jumble of big words (?) and nonsense, but the following is the rumble of good, hard, common sense: There is no surer or safer investment for a hundred per cent. profit in a short time than that offered in Carolina Place by the American Suburban Corporation, 315 Southern Building. Nice high building lots, only $200 to $275 each; $10 cash, and $7.50 to $5.00 per month. No interest. Handsome improvements — water, granolithic or stone sidewalks, shade trees, etc. Healthy restriction for the protection of buyers, and looking to the making of Carolina Place a first-class white resident section. Only a few beautiful high lots left—intrinsically the cheapest and safest of the addition, because all the other hundreds of lots having been sold the proposition is no longer an experiment, but is now assured beyond all preadventure. Don't fail to get on the band wagon at once. Call at the office, or vogorously operate—Hello No. 1341 and make known your troubles.

Free carriages to the property. **

CHAS. B. AYCOCK TO RIO JANEIRO

President Appoints Former Governor Delegate to Pan American Conference

VANLEER POLK ALSO NAMED

Delegation Enlarged So South Could Have Two Representatives in Conference—Delegation Will Consist of Seven—Meets in July.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, April 16.—President Roosevelt has decided to appoint Charles B. Aycock, former Governor of North Carolina, and VanLeer Polk, of Tennessee, members of the delegation from the United States to the Pan-American Conference which is to meet in July at Rio Janeiro. These appointments are to be made in accordance with the wishes of Southern members of Congress who, in view of the fact that many of the questions to be considered by the conference are of especial interest to the South, have felt that men identified with that section of the country should be members of the commission.

The original appropriation for the conference was recently increased so as to meet the expenses incident to the appointment of two additional members from the South.

Mr. Aycock is a well known Democrat. Mr. Polk was in the consular service some years ago.

The full commission as now constituted is as follows:

William L. Buchanan, of New York, chairman; Professor Leo S. Rowe, of the University of Pennsylvania; James S. Harlan, of Illinois; Professor Edward James, of the University of Illinois; Tulio Larrinaga, resident commissioner from Porto Rico; Charles B. Aycock, of North Carolina, and VanLeer Polk, of Tennessee.

It is said that Professor James, because of other engagements, will in all probability be unable to go to Rio Janeiro. The vacancy to be created by his retirement, it is said, will not be filled. Mr. Polk was consul general at Calcutta, India, during President Cleveland's last administration. He is from Columbia and Nashville, Tenn.

AMERICAN ATHLETES IN NAPLES.

Hope To Be in Fair Shape for Olympic Games.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Naples, April 6.—The North German Lloyd steamer Barbarossa from New York, April 3, and Gibraltar April 13, having on board the American athletes who are entered to take part in the Olympic games which begin at Athens, April 22, arrived here today. The men who were injured while crossing the Atlantic, with the exception of James S. Mitchell, of the New York Athletic Club, the weight putter and hammer thrower, and Harry L. Hillman, Jr., the New York Athletic runner, have recovered. Mitchell's arm is still in a sling and may interfere with his competing and Hillman's left leg is still bandaged. The latter is improing and expects to compete at Athens.

The Americans landed soon after the Barbarossa's arrival. Some of them visited the scenes of desolation in the vicinity of Mount Vesuvius but the majority of the athletes, accompanied by their trainers, practiced running at jumping, etc., in order to test their condition after the sea voyage. All were in good spirits tnd insisted that the accidents would not appreciably affect the strength of the team.

FREIGHT TRAINS ON SUNDAY.

Supreme Court Has No Power to Interfere in Georgia.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Washington, April 16.—The Supreme Court of the United States to-day dismissed for want of jurisdiction, the case of J. N. Searle vs. the State of Georgia, involving the validity of the Georgia State law prohibiting the running of freight trains on Sunday. Searle is the superintendent of the Southern Railway Company, and as such was indicated, tried and found guilty in Habersham county, in 1903, on the charge of violating the law. He took the case to the Supreme Court of Georgia which sustained the law, and affirmed the sentence of the trial court. He then sued out a writ of error to the Supreme Court of the United States on the ground that the law is repugnant to the Federal constitution, but that court refused to take cognizance of it. The effect is to leave in force the finding of the Georgia court.

FATHER AND TWO SONS TO HANG IN GEORGIA

Supreme Court of United States Decides Against the Rawlings Murderers.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, April 16.—The case of J. G. Ralings, Milton Rawlings Leonard Rawlings and Jesse Rawlings was today decided by the Supreme Court of the United States against them, the opinion being rendered by Justice Holmes. This was a criminal proceeding against the four men, all of them members of one family, residing in Lowndes county, Ga., on a charge of murdering two members of a family named Carter, with which family the Rawlings had a feud. It is charged that they empoyed a negro named Moore to murder the entire Carter family, and that some of the members of the Rawlings family accompanied him to the Carter residence on the night of the tragedy. By making a noise they attracted a boy and his sister outside the house and then shot them down. Other members of the family refused to come out and therefore escaped. On the trial all of the members of the Rawlings family whose names are given, except Leonard, were found guilty of murder, and he received a sentence of life imprisonment. The Supreme Court of Georgia affirmed the verdict of the trial court, and the case was brought to the Federal Supreme Court on the allegation of discrimination in selecting the trial jury in that all professional men were excluded. The court held that the men had not been deprived of any constitutional right and sustained the decisions of the State court.

BLOODSHED IN MINING REGION.

Three Miners Shot Dead by Deputies—Two Wounded.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Johnstown, Pa., April 16—Three men have been shot dead, a boy fatally wounded, and a mining engineer, Eugene Delaney, taken to the hospital in a serious condition as a result of a riot at Winber among the striking coal miners to-night. The place is in a state of terror.

Sheriff Begley has summoned, and an appeal has been made to Governor Pennypacker for troops. There are several others of the rioters who have sustained slight injuries. The dead men and most of the injured are foreigners, and their names cannot be obtained. The bodies are lying in the street to-night where they fell, the strikers refusing to allow the undertakers to remove them.

The foreign element have been celebrating Easter Monday in the mining section and much liquor has been used. The streets have been thronged all day with a boisterous crowd, but no sign of trouble appeared until to-night. A body of strikers were assembled in front of the Winber jail discussing the mass meeting that had been held during the afternoon, and which had been addressed by three Catholic priests. The discussion grew itno argument and soon there was a free for all fight.

Deputies that had been sworn in when the strike in the coal mines was first inaugurated made their appearance and a number of arrests were made. All the arrested men were union men, and their colleagues set up a cry that they were being discriminated against and were imposed upon.

The arrested men were marched to the lockup door but there a mob had formed and an attempt was made to take the men from the officers.

Forced back from the jail door, the mob growing more violent every minute, threatened the deputies until the officers fired. The mob hesitated, apparently not expecting the deputies would resort to fire arms. When the smoke had cleared away and the victims of the shots were viewed by the crowd, there were cries of anger and soon miners that were armed returned the shots of the deputies. The firing ceased almost as soon as it began, however, and the crowd filed away from the jail.

A state of terror exists to-night because of liquor and the angered miners. There is much dynamite stored here, and it is feared the strikers will resort to the explosive in revenge.

How Affair Began.

Johnstown, Pa., April 16.—Shortly before midnight the town quieted down and the crowds began to disapear from the streets. The State constabulary had been summoned from Greensburg in the meantime and they were being rushed to Winber is about twenty miles from this city, it is not expected the constabulary will reach Winber before early in the morning. Trouble is anticipated, however, when the constabulary arrives at the mines, as the foreign element are very antagonistic to the State officers. An eye witness of the riot describing the affair tonight said the trouble started at 5 o'clock when Deputy Sheriff W. M. McMullen went to the mass meeting held by the striking miners in a wood at the edge of the town. Many of the miners had been drinking and the sight of the deputy made many of them furious.

The officer was quickly surrounded by maddened miners, who threatened to kill him, McMullen, realizing that his situation was desperated fled for his life.

The deputies fired but one volley, and the foreigners broke and fled in wild disorder, leaving three of their number dead in front of the jail. Zillis, the leader, was among those killed.

FOUR LYNCHERS UNDER ARREST

Governor Folk Takes Prompt Action Concerning Three Negroes at Springfield

WARRANTS FOR TWENTY-FIVE

Reward of $300 for Arrest and Proof to Convict Each of Mob Special Grand Jury Ordered—Trouble Treatened.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Springfield, Mo., April 16.—Four men are now under arrest charged with being leaders in the mob that broke into the county jail Saturday night and lynched three negroes. Two of the alleged mob-leaders are in jail and two have been released on bond. Charles Cannefax and Ony Calfrey were the first men arrested. Cannefax has been a pool room proprietor but is at present employed in the St. Louis and San Franisco Railroad yards. Calfrey is a switchman for the same road. Both have been released on bond.

Daniel Crane, son of a saddlery merchant, and Otis Hall, a police court character, are in jail. Cannefax to-day told Sheriff Horner that a collection would be taken to pay for the damage done by the mob to the sheriff's property. The offer was refused.

Judge Lincoln, of the Criminal Court today ordered a special grand jury convened on Tuesday morning. The jury will be instructed to make a thorough investigation of the lynching and the other acts of the mob and to indict all the leaders that may be apprehended. The better class of citizens were strong today in their demands that the rioters be punished to the full extent of the law and every effort wil. be made to secure convictions. After the meeting of the Criminal Court, Roscoe Patterson, prosecuting attorney, said:

"I shall file information and issue warrants for the arrest of every man I can learn was concerned in the lynchings or the assault upon the jail. These arrests will be made as quickly as possible, without waiting for the grand jury to act."

Wararnts for twenty-five persons charging them with being leaders in the mob, were issued.

Gov Folk Acts.

Jefferson City, Mo., April 16.—Governor Folk today issued instructions to Adjutant General Dearmond to direct General H. C. Clark, in command of the State militia now in Springfield, to arrest the leaders of the mob of Saturday night, put them in jail and surround the jail with troops for protection. The Governor stated that the militia will be kept in Springfield until quiet and order is restored and all danger of injury to persons and property is averted. Governor Folk today offered a reward of $300 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any member of the Springfield mob. Assistant Attorney General Jno. Kenneth left Springfield today by direction of the Governor to assist in investigating the lynching.

Race Trouble Threatened.

Kansas City, Mo., April 16.—A special to The Star from Springfield, Mo., says:

"Notwithstanding the presence of armed troops, the fact that a grand jury has been called to indict the leaders of Saturday night's mob that the county prosecutor has promised to issue warrants during the day, and the best citizens have decried the triple lynching, the streets today were full of people who approve the work of the mob and who curse all negroes and advise that all the negroes be run out of the town. Danger of mob violence is not past. Hundreds of men openly curse and jeer the soldiers. Hundreds of men boldly utter the threat that if arrests are made the people will arise and rescue the men and drive the militia as well as the negroes from the city. Everywhere this threat is heard: "This town is too small for negroes and whites to live in. One of the other must go."

An incident showing the trend of the feeling took place here today near the court house where hundreds of people were gathered, walking aimlessly about. A negro, leaning against the court house, with the troops nearby, made the remark in a swagger manner: "Give the colored men the guns and we'll show you." White men threatened to close in on the negro but officers hustled him away to jail. In another minute apparently he would have been trampled to death. Conservative citizens, knowing how deep seated is the feeling here toward the negroes, fear that some trivial incident may at any time start a bloody riot.

Up to noon today men who had been in the mob stood on the street corners an joked each other about it, but after the arests made today the lynchers became alarmed and left the public square deserted, and tonight Springfield is quiet.

Around the jail are camped 200 soldiers with guards out at every point so that no one can get near the jail. No one now expects a mob or any further trouble, as long as the militia stay

NEGROES DEFY LAW AT MOUNT AIRY, N. C.

Two Officers Disarmed and Made Target of Their Own Pistols—One Negro Was Killed.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Greensboro, N. C., April 16.—A special to the Daily Industrial News from Mount Airy, N. C., says:

"As a result of Walter Penn, a negro, resisting, and other negroes overpowering and disarming Deputy Sheriff U. S. Belton and Officer John Samuels, George Long, a negro, is dead and the local military company was ordered to the scene of what was almost a riot. The negroes succeeded in securing the pistols of the officers and fired about twenty shots at them, and the officers only saved themselves by holding negro women between them and the attacking party. The dead negro was shot by one of his own race, in the attempt to shoot the officers. The shooting occurred outside the city limits, and before the soldiers arrived the guilty parties had escaped to the woods. A posse of citizens and soldiers is searching for the negroes.

Human Blood Marks.

A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bac, Ky. He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures Hemorrhages, Chronic Coughts, Settled Colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for Weak Lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy, Druggist: 50c. and $1.00.
